The rand took advantage of the reversal in USD strength as well as improved investor sentiment on the back of positive global trade developments and early signs of a stabilisation in some key global economic data.

BRITISH POUND

R18.52

1%

Rand gains against the pound were limited following optimism around a Brexit deal. In addition, most of the pound strength was due to a weaker USD in the run-up to the US Fed's interest rate cut in October.

EURO

R15.70

5%

Euro also advanced against the US dollar as Brexit uncertainty lifted and manufacturing data showed signs of improvement.

Domestic performance drivers

HIGHLIGHTS

- The work to bring justice to bear continues. Four individuals, including two former Eskom executives were arrested in late December on charges of corruption, fraud and money laundering
- Domestic equities were lifted alongside international markets and domestic bond markets benefitted from improved sentiment towards emerging markets and a robust Rand.
- Incoming Eskom CEO Andre de Ruyter, was asked to start earlier than planned to progress the urgent work of steadying the state-owned utility.

LOW POINTS

- The intermittent load shedding at the end of the fourth quarter, increased the risk that economic growth would disappoint again.
- Credit ratings agencies Moody's and S&P downgraded the outlook for the sovereign from stable to negative.
- Strikes at national carrier South African Airways saw flights delayed and grounded, as staff and unions sought higher wages. The Government reaffirmed that there are no funds for bailouts and SAA went into voluntary business rescue in December.

Global performance drivers

HIGHLIGHTS

- In the UK, the Conservative election victory was taken positively as it dealt a fatal blow to the Labour Party's far left "Corbynistas", whilst also providing greater clarity over the next stage of Brexit.
- Investor confidence in next year's global and US economic outlook started to improve, helped by growing optimism over a trade deal and strong US job and wage data.
- Almost a year after the initial deal was signed, negotiators reached agreement on the US-Mexico-Canada Agreement, or new NAFTA agreement, moving it towards congressional ratification in the US.

LOW POINTS

- Hong Kong protests escalated in November, with violence breaking out between anti-government protesters and the police at a local university. The pro-democracy protests started over the proposed extradition law that would enable easier extradition to mainland China but quickly evolved into a debate on the autonomy of Hong Kong and the relationship with China.
- In October, the IMF downgraded the 2019 global growth outlook to 3.0%, the lowest forecast since the global financial crisis, while China reported growth of 6% in Q3, its slowest pace in decades.

XS Fund of Funds performance contribution – Q4 2019

CONTRIBUTORS THIS QUARTER

- The Nedgroup Investments Flexible Income fund's preference share exposure, yield pick-up from floating rate notes as well as being underweight property contributed to performance.
- The Nedgroup Investments Value fund bounced back in the last quarter, with some of its big positions ending the year well: Aspen (+39%), Sasol (+20%), Capital and Counties (+10%).
- Maintaining a material exposure to domestic equity exposure enabled the FoF to take part in the domestic equity market's strong end to 2019.

DETRACTORS THIS QUARTER

- The Rand strengthened 8% relative to the US dollar, benefitting from the positive global sentiment. This outweighed the impact of concerns about local electricity supply even though Eskom continued to implement load-shedding. A weaker USD also provided additional support to the local unit.
- Most managers had no to relatively low exposure to the top performing precious metal stocks: Sibanye Gold (+258% in 2019; +71% Q4); Impala Platinum (+290% in 2019; +51% Q4'19) and Northam Platinum (+186% in 2019; +49% Q4'19).
- Both domestic property managers (Bridge and Prudential) posted close to flat returns this quarter, as December was another difficult month for this sector of the market.

Domestic asset class positioning

DOMESTIC EQUITY

NEUTRAL

25.1%

- Pockets of opportunity have opened up in the market, but are not without risks.
- Broadly balanced: rand-hedge exposure exists, with a meaningful tilt towards domestic-facing companies.

DOMESTIC PROPERTY

NEUTRAL

4.9%

- Neutral position retained. Preference for active management/stock selection.
- Within the active component, we remain invested in small/mid-sized domestically focused firms; with SAPY index heavyweights present via the enhanced tracker holding.

DOMESTIC BOND

NEUTRAL

21.3%

- Attractive yields and rewards for local risks, however mindful of global risk factors.
- Playing the interest rate cycle through our duration positioning given increased volatility.

DOMESTIC CASH

OVER WEIGHT

25.6%

- The exposure to defensive assets remains prudent given the geopolitical risks that still exist.
- Provides consistent return profile.
- The healthy cash balance also provides optionality (dry powder) should opportunities arise.

Global asset class positioning

GLOBAL EQUITY

NEUTRAL

13.8%

- Room for earnings growth still exists; as well as the availability of reasonable levels of the equity/bond premium.
- International opportunities offering diversification, access to higher growth (e.g. EM) and risk adjusted returns, not just protection against rand weakness.

GLOBAL PROPERTY

OVER WEIGHT

3.3%

- Overweight commercial property companies focused on offices and data centres, but underweight those specialising in residential and retail.
- Also positioned for concerns around the impact of technology disruption.

GLOBAL BOND

UNDER WEIGHT

2.7%

- Underweight global bonds in general. Global government bond yields declined on concerns that global growth is now decelerating.
- Minor exposure to EM bonds.

GLOBAL CASH

NEUTRAL

3.3%

- Cash positions remain as the underlying managers look for compelling, idiosyncratic opportunities.
